COOKON CG SERIES HEAVY DUTY GAS COUNTER GRIDDLE

The CG series is a gas fired heavy duty counter griddle. This series is available in a 600 and a 900 model. The CG series is a versatile performer to have in any kitchen requiring a variety of different types of grilled food. The units are standard bench or counter models with a further option for the units to be mounted on a stainless steel stand with a midshelf. The burners are a heavy duty cast iron and provide an even heat across the whole of the mild steel griddle plate.
